

JEALOUS OF YOUNG GIRL. GRANVILLE YOUTH SHOTS SELF SATURDAY EVENING

Ralph Jaques, Aged 18, Could Not Bear Thought of Sweetheart Being Courtied by Others

SENT BULLET IN NECK SEVERING JUGULAR VEIN

Suicide Chose Home of Girl for Perpetration of Terrible Deed--Leaves Widowed Mother With Whom He Made His Home--Funeral Monday Morning.

Late Saturday afternoon the quiet little village of Granville was shocked by one of the saddest tragedies that has ever darkened the pages of Licking county history. In a moment of jealous anger, Ralph Jaques, a young manhood, became the victim of his own misguided passion and ruthlessly sacrificed his own young life, with its untold years of promise, to the promptings of uncontrolled jealousy. As a result of his rash act, his life history is self-ended at what might have been the very threshold of a manly career, while in the desolate home a heart-broken mother mourns an added sorrow to her widowed life.

Granville, Sept. 12.—Ralph Wolf Jaques, who is a son of Mrs. Alma Jaques, and whose exact age is 18 years, 1 month and 20 days, made his home with his widowed mother on Linden avenue. Ever since last March he has been keeping company with Miss Maud Keller, an interesting young woman, who came here in January from Mohabala, Perry county, and who since that time has been living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hovey Hagan, on North Pearl street, this place. Mr. Hagan is the field manager for the Hagan Drilling Company, extensively operating in this and other gas fields in Ohio.

The young couple always seemed to get along very nicely up to within a short time, notwithstanding, it is said, that young Jaques was possessed of a very jealous disposition. Recently, however, according to reports, Jaques let his jealousy get the better of him, and his results cropped out on several different occasions.

Of course this disposition on the part of the young man had the effect of causing a breach between the couple, which gradually widened and it is common talk that Jaques had had trouble with several young men on account of the young woman. The climax was reached Saturday afternoon when, it is said, he called Miss Keller up by telephone and asked her to take a buggy ride with him. It seems that she refused to go with him, when he went to the Hagan home and asked to see her. Mrs. Hagan, who came to the door and talked with him, told him that Miss Keller could not see him, as she was upstairs, changing her attire. On receiving this information, Jaques started to leave the premises, but had only taken several steps when little Gladys, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hagan, came out of the door. Jaques asked her where Miss Keller was, when she confirmed the statement of her mother—that she was upstairs, changing her dress.

The little girl had hardly done telling him where Miss Keller was when he whipped out a revolver and placing it against the right side of his neck, pulled the trigger. There was a report and the young man pitched forward, falling in the grass on his face, with his right hand under him, still clasp the revolver.

The little girl, who was horrified at the tragedy, quickly notified her uncle, Mr. John Melsinger, who lived near by, and who at once summoned Dr. A. K. Follett, who hurried to the scene of the shooting, but when he arrived the young man was dead.

Dr. Follett soon got in communication with Deputy Coroner Wiyiarch of Newark and that official came up to Granville on the 7 o'clock interurban car and went to the Jaques home and viewed the body, which had been taken care of by Undertaker J. M. Jones, a direction of Justice of the Peace, Theodore C. Baker.

An examination showed that the bullet, which had been fired from a 32-calibre revolver, had entered the right side of the neck, cutting the jugular vein, and that it had taken an upward course, penetrating the brain, so that death must have been instantaneous.

When Dr. Follett reached the scene of the shooting he found the body lying on the ground, with the head a little to the northwest and the feet turned toward the steps.

It is said that Jaques had made threats to get even with the girl and some one of the opinion that had she come to the door when he called for Miss Keller, instead of Mrs. Hagan, that he would have shot her first, before taking his own life.

Saturday evening Deputy Coroner Wiyiarch and a couple of newspaper men called at the Hagan home and the former examined Miss Keller relative to her knowledge of the tragedy.

Miss Keller is a buxom, comely miss of 20, with black hair and black eyes. (Continued on page 8, col. 5)

HAS SMALL WRECK.

LONG ISLAND AND MAN HATTAN WEDDED AS FIRST TRAIN MOVES

New York, Sept. 12.—An epoch-making event was the dispatching of the first train from the new Pennsylvania station through the great tubes under the East river at 2:41 o'clock Thursday morning, September 8. Great crowds gathered about the station about daylight, and it is estimated that 25,000 persons were carried through the tunnels connecting Long Island and Manhattan during the first 24 hours. The new station was the source of much interest, occupying two whole city blocks, covering 4 1/2 acres of ground, with exterior walls extending approximately one-half of a mile, the structure rivals the Vatican or the St. Petersburg winter palace. To provide space for the great structure more than 500 buildings were razed. Some Buffalo, Sept. 12.—Of the twelve men who entered in a race through the Niagara rapids, Captain Larson of Cleveland is the sole remainder. He has had a motor boat built specially for the attempt and says he will try to accomplish the feat Saturday.

DEMAND

That Ex-President Roosevelt Make Public Receipts and Expenditures of 1904 Campaign.

New York, Sept. 12.—The World today editorially demands that Col. Roosevelt make public the receipts and expenditures of his 1904 campaign. The editorial quotes extensively from Roosevelt's Ossawatimie speeches and says the public has a right to know how his proposed presidential stewardship is to be exercised.

It claims the people can only judge the future by the past. It says: "In the campaign of 1904, the World submitted to you 10 questions which went to the heart of your stewardship. We here reprint them: 'How much have the beef, paper, coal, sugar, oil, tobacco, steel and insurance trusts the national banks and the six great railroad trusts contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?' Your 1904 campaign fund has never been publicly accounted for, except such fragments as have accidentally come to light. We know the life insurance companies gave $150,000, that Harrison raised $250,000, that Standard Oil gave $100,000, and the other trusts also contributed.

"We know that while president, you never prosecuted trust officials personally, although the Sherman law is a criminal statute."

The editorial takes up several other failures to prosecute trusts and demands that "before the new nationalism proceeds further, let us have the facts about the old nationalism of 1904."

CONGRESS CLOSED BY PAGEANT

Nations from All Over World Take Part in Eucharistic Meeting

OVER 100,000 IN PARADE

Crowd Was So Immense That 200,000 Were Compelled to Sleep in Park.

Montreal, Sept. 12.—A religious pageant as high in devotional emotion as in varied imagery, and as orderly in behavior as it was diverse in nationality and huge in size, closed Sunday the twenty-first international eucharistic congress, held this year for the first time in the Dominion of Canada.

Visitors from the United States were especially impressed with the magnitude, splendor and reverence of the procession, which marched four miles through the city street, the most at its head, to Mount Royal. A modest estimate is that there were 100,000 in line and that 500,000 viewed it. The city was so crowded last night that 200,000 people are sleeping on the slopes of Mount Royal, in Dominion Square, and in other city parks.

It took the long and brilliant file four and a half hours to pass city hall, and though it began to move at noon from Notre Dame, it was seven o'clock when the paper parade, Cardinal Vincent Vanutelli, placed the host, housed in a golden monstrance, on the altar of the repository built for it at the foot of the mountain.

The Cardinal legate marched at the head of the procession, himself, carrying the host the entire distance. Slowly and majestically, hymning its progress, like pilgrims of the crusades, the great pageant followed after. Organized choirs sang in Latin, French and English, while bands scattered here and there rendered devotional music. When the crowd knew the air it joined in swelling and mingled languages.

The procession had been arranged to demonstrate the unity and universality of the Catholic Church. It started from Notre Dame with a preliminary detachment of mounted officers, firemen and papal soldiers, followed by a choir of 200 male voices. The state, the church and the army were represented, every rite had its delegation and there were envoys from the various missionary activities in foreign lands.

The government was represented by Justice Girouard, now acting governor-general in the absence of Sir Charles Fitzpatrick. With him were other members of the federal and provincial courts, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of the Dominion; Sir Charles Murphy, secretary of the state and L. M. Bodeau, minister of marine and fisheries.

A profound silence stole over the spectators when the Sixty-fifth regiment, recruited from French Canadians of Quebec province, were seen approaching in full dress uniform. The government had wished to give the regiment an opportunity to act as guard of honor to the host, which it does at each recurrence of the Fete Dieu, but a technical difficulty had arisen by reason of the presence of a mission from the papal see. The city was surprised that it had been smothered over at the last moment. The official order of the colonel was for the regiment to attend a church celebration.

Preceding the regiment marched the Knights of Columbus, 1500 strong, headed by Bishop Fallon of London, Ont., the Catholic Club of New York, with its chairman, Father Taylor, who was heartily cheered, and then squads of Greeks, Poles, Hungarians, Lithuanians, Serbians, Ruthenians, Chinese, Indians from an Iroquois reservation, then long files of religious congregations. Two priests marched.

COLUMBUS AGHAST AT DISCOVERY OF DYNAMITE UNDER ROOSEVELT'S STAND

Columbus, Sept. 12.—Police circles were thrown into a furore of excitement Sunday by the finding of a large quantity of explosives under a wing of the platform from which ex-President Roosevelt made his address Saturday.

The discovery was made early on Sunday morning but because of the censorship on news from police headquarters it was not until last night that definite facts were ascertained.

The explosives consisted of a five-pound can of giant powder such as is used by miners; about seven pounds of loose powder of the same grade; a couple of small sticks of dynamite and two bottles containing what might be nitroglycerin, wrapped in cotton. All of this was in a well worn leather valise, which also contained a miner's pick.

Superintendent W. H. Anson of Goodale Park, where the Roosevelt meeting was held, turned the valise and its contents over to the police department.

When asked the amount of explosives last night, Mayor George Marshall declared that there was but between 10 and 12 pounds of giant powder. He further said that in his opinion the explosives were not under the stand when Roosevelt was in the city, but were probably placed there Saturday night.

His deduction is that some miner who was probably changing employment from the Hocking Valley to some other section of the coal fields, became intoxicated and put the valise there to lighten his burden, or maybe he secreted it there, knowing how dangerous it was, and proceeded to take in the sights of the city, intending to secure his baggage before leaving town.

This is the police theory, but others are of the opinion that the deadly stuff was placed there to do business and had been planted Friday night. They argue that it was the intention of the miscreant who had the explosives to touch them off at the proper time, but that the crowd surrounding the speakers' stand was so dense that he lost heart, fearing that he would be caught in the attempt to touch them off.

However, the explosives were secreted in a valise and it would not have been possible to touch them off without pre-arrangement.

2200 VOLTS THROUGH HIS BODY

And William Staley Lives to Tell of His Awful Experience

STOCKING BURNED OFF

Prompt Action of Bernard Henderson Saved Staley From Death By Electrocution.

Taking 2200 volts of electricity through his body and recovering from the shock is the strange experience that happened at 12:45 Sunday morning to William Staley, an assistant foreman in the nicking department of the Wehrle foundry. Staley's narrow escape from death is remarkable and it was only after a surgeon worked on him for hours that he finally gave signs of returning life. He may lose part of his left hand, as a result of his near electrocution.

Staley and two men had been in the West End of the city and were returning by walking the railroad tracks. At Sixth and Walnut streets the man stopped to talk a few moments and Staley, without thinking of danger, grabbed a wire that was hanging from an electric light pole. The wire was "live" and instantly 2200 volts of electricity passed through his body. His body was stiffened and as he was unconscious he was unable to release his grip on the wire which was sending him to his death.

Realizing that something was wrong, and taking in the situation at an instant, Bernard Henderson, one of his friends, made a run and as he passed the unconscious form of Staley he grabbed the hand that held the wire and the impact of his body threw Staley to the ground, away from the wire. As he fell on top of the man whose life he saved, the wire brushed Henderson's face slightly burning it.

A man in a rig passed about that time and the unconscious man was lifted into the rig and driven at top speed to the office of Dr. P. H. Cosner who worked until daylight with the patient before it was possible to discern a pulsebeat. The victim of the live wire was then taken to the Sanitarium and placed in charge of the officials of that institution.

Staley's left hand is badly burned and it will probably be necessary to amputate a portion of the hand which was burned by the wire. The current, entering his left hand, passed entirely through the left side of his body and out of his left foot into the ground. The stocking was burned from the foot and a small hole was burned in the sole of the shoe as the electricity passed through his body and into the ground. The fact that the ground that he was standing on was dry is all that saved his life.

At the Ohio Penitentiary, only 1750 volts of electricity are required in the electrocution of condemned persons. Staley took 450 volts in excess of this amount and lives to tell the tale.

When he was taken to the Cosner's office the man was unconscious and he was practically impossible to discern a heart beat, but restoratives were applied and hour after hour the surgeon worked with the man and shortly after daylight was rewarded by discovering a faint pulse beat. Staley was then removed to the Sanitarium where he could have the necessary attention.

Staley lives at 195 Boylston avenue, and is the assistant foreman in the nicking department of the Wehrle Stove foundry. His condition is much improved today, and while a slight paralysis is still noticeable in his left leg, still the attending physician thinks that the numbness will pass away.

STATE FAIR LOSS ABOUT $25,000

Columbus, Sept. 12.—The State Fair loss will be a little less than $25,000. This is the latest and most accurate estimate. The gate and grandstand took in $20,000, and other receipts netted about $20,000. The expenses were $25,000.

(By E. C. Hall)
Chillicothe, Sept. 12.—True to predictions and before the enthusiastic fans drawn League parkward by the drubbing administered to Lima and the Diggers, the Molders, meeting in the first game of a four time series their enemy, the Molders, played baseball like a bunch of kids on a town lot, allowing their opponents to get away with the first scalp by a 4-0 score and adding the ignominy of kalsomining to it all. The bunch of gray clad plodders seem to be Jonahs for the Infants and Sunday was no exception. Running bases like cows in a three by four pasture, the local cellar champs placed just 13 men on the paths and then failed to get a runner across the River Jordan. Twice during the progress of the season, the sacks were clogged and but one man had gone the weary route, and still they could not break into the ranks of the run column.
And to top off their own poor offensive work they played a miserable game afield behind the wobbly pitching of one Hiram Grandie, erstwhile literary light of the celebrated village, Leesburg, who first cleans the league leaders with ease and then turns around and allows second division clubs to pummel his offerings all over the lot. Three successive games this lad has won, one from the Beans and two from Marion, and then to top of this nice record he had to allow the Molders to get within one run of as many as did the two upstart clubs in all three of their conflicts with his teasers. The first Molder counter came in the fifth frame on Shannon's single, Merritt's sacrifice and Conley's short rap to center. Two more were added in the sixth on an error a sacrifice and two singles. In the eighth the last tally was recorded when Bobby Anderson doubled to left and scored on a sacrifice by Brown and O'Day's squeeze bunt.
Goshorn was on the firing line for the Molders, but although he was touched for nine binges in addition to being wild and unkind in several spots, he managed to get up with a shut-out, thanks to the dumb baserunning of the Beans. In both the eighth and ninth innings the cushions were crowded with but one dead, but there was nothing doing. And in the ninth one of the most glaring skulls ever robbed us of a run which would have saved the ignominy of a shutout. With three men on and one out Wolf used a long skier to left. Lake could have scored with ease on the throw in, but instead he waited for a plate until the tags caught and then started back to third. Save us, then! What is wrong cannot be said outside of one thing—the Molders have our goat. Babes play ball against top notchers and fall down against Newark every time. The score:

Behind the Screen

For the second time this season Newark has battled her way to fourth place, and gained that position with luck breaking against the Molders. We are at the head of the second division, and only a few points, but with the season drawing to a close it is possible for O'Day's gang to finish ahead of both Lancaster and Chillicothe. The Infants have been going at a great clip and after trimming Lima they took on Marion and beat the Diggers four straight games. It took Newark to stop them and not only were they stopped, but a shut-out was the result.
All the winning teams Sunday Newark, Marion and Lima—won by the same score. Lima beat Lancaster by the same score that Newark defeated Chillicothe.
The Molders are showing greater speed on the bases and the last few days have seen the Molders registering many pilfered bags on the opposing gag. Sacrifice hits have also been numerous and have kept the locals moving on the paths.
In seven more days the season in the Ohio State League will end and the pennant will hardly be decided before that time. Many changes can take place and the standing of every club in the circuit can be changed.
Tom Kibler is not slated to manage Chillicothe next season, but he will probably sign to play an infield position with that club next season. Tom has kept a bad team fighting all season and while the Infants have spent most of their time in last place, yet the team was always a dangerous proposition for every club in the circuit.
It is reported from Lancaster that Heine Peitz has been let out as manager of Lancaster by Owner Ruff. Ruff and Peitz couldn't agree on some matters and the break followed.

Ruff has only been in baseball a year, but he has made more blunders in that club than any other man could have done. Five managers have been in charge of that club this season, and Charley Riehl is now slated to take up the work for the rest of the season.
The blowup of the Cobblers yesterday cost them the first game with Marion. Pete Childs had two boots to his credit and the boots were costly. It isn't often that Pete will wobble but when he does something happens, and yesterday it demoralized the team.
The following will be of interest to the admirers of Wratten, former Newark player:
Louisville, Ky., Sept. 9.—Irve Wratten leaves Louisville tonight, no matter what he does in this afternoon's farewell game, with the unqualified admiration of both friends and foes. In the ten games of this trip he has "third-based" in a way superior to anyone the Senators have seen this year. Liners, hard smashes and slow rollers have all been taken care of with such precision that Louisville people actually regard the third corner as the best fortified place on the Columbus infield. In addition, Wratten has batted right along with the sluggers of the team. In only two of the ten games has he gone without a bingle and he was on base in one of these a couple of times with passes. In 31 times at bat, he has piled up an average of .351 by making 11 hits.

"Doc" Abbott, the Newark baseball player with York, Pa., in the Tr-State League, is playing great ball this season. Abbott, who was formerly with Harrisburg, in the same league, and who was traded to York some time ago, has been batting at a great clip since the transfer. Abbott holds down center garden for the Yorks and in 4 games last week he smashed 8 safeties in 16 times at the willow, giving him the neat percentage of .500 for the week. He is not credited with a single error in the four games, and two of his eight hits were for two cushions each.

NO GAME TODAY.
Chillicothe, Sept. 12.—Owing to rain this afternoon, Newark and Chillicothe did not play.

PITCHERS BATTLE AT PORTSMOUTH

AMUSEMENTS

KEITH VAUDEVILLE.

There is to be an excellent show at the Auditorium theatre for the first three days of this week, beginning with the matinee this afternoon. The Keith offerings have been culled and the best to be secured will be seen here. As a headliner is offered Miss Ray Lewis, the clever dancing girl, who puts on her famous barefoot dances. The great progress that has been made in the artistic in dancing is shown by many new dances, and although such famous dancers as Isabel Duncan and others have been seen in Columbus, this will be Newark's first opportunity to witness the classical in dancing. This act is billed as Palmer and Lewis. Kraft and Myrtle will put on a comedy singing and dancing skit that has been winning many laurels for them by the way of laughs. Harry Rabin will be seen in a clever bit of work and the four Altons, premier acrobats, have a gymnastic act that cannot be beat. Finkert and Ritter are top notchers as entertainers when it comes to eccentric comedians and this, supplemented by their dancing, will give them a big place on the bill. This big program will be on the boards at the Auditorium for the first three days of this week, and an equally good one will replace it Thursday.

Miss Ray Lewis, at the Auditorium Theatre Afternoons and Evenings, of First Three Days of This Week

THE ORPHEUM.

The program at the Orpheum this week is one that will undoubtedly test the capacity of that theatre and everyone who sees it will come away with a sense of satisfaction and enjoyment that could not be increased. The feature act is without any question of doubt the best band act on the road, the Howard Brothers. You have seen Mays and Hunter and you have enjoyed their piece de resistance, "William Tell," and you have seen nearly two generations of Polk, "William Tell," Decker Bros., Chas. and Collins in their rendition of

THE EVENING OF LIFE

(Communicated.)
Such was the subject of the morning discourse preached at the Second Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Cosgrove. It was very apropos at this season of the year. The serene and yellow leaf, the rustling of the dead leaves and moaning of the winds, are silent reminders of the fact that we are living in a world of change, and that we, too, are sooner or later passing away. He touched upon the morning, the noonday and the evening of life; referred to how differently we view the various phases in life, youth with its buoyancy, middle age with its aspirations and ambitions and old age with its happy reflections upon a well spent life. We should all try to live so that when the shadows deepen and our span of life is rapidly drawing to its close, that we may feel that we have not lived in vain—old age as well as youth and early manhood, has its compensations and what is more beautiful than a life devoted to good deeds and a hope of a blessed immortality? The discourse was full of beautiful thoughts and poetic imagery, and while it was in many respects sad, yet it was suggestive as well as impressive, and reminded us that we should so live that when old age creeps upon us and the shadows deepen, we can look back upon our past life with a consciousness that we have not lived in vain. He referred to the closing scenes in the lives of some of the old patriarchs in Holy Writ and showed how calmly and serenely they met death. There are many admirable thoughts presented in this address which I would like to notice, did space permit. I do not know of a quotation which would be more appropriate and which embraced the sentiments of the beautiful discourse more than the following: "We live in deeds, not years—in thoughts, not breaths—in feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart-throbs. He lives most who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best!" C. P. K.

HEART and HOME TALKS by Barbara Boyd

Little Problems of The Home.

The Mother's Vacation.

The practice of the mother of the family taking a vacation of her very own is growing, and it is a practice to be commended. The time was when it would have been looked upon as a most unheard-of proceeding for the mother of a family to pack her trunk and go off by herself for a good time. Neighbors' tongues would wagged mercilessly. Heads would have been shaken ominously, and all sorts of dire happenings predicted for the husband and children left behind. They would have been pined on all sides. Indeed, suspicions would have been afloat that there had been a serious family quarrel.

But nothing of that sort occurs nowadays, though here and there will be found some to maintain that a mother should not leave her family. But because a woman is a mother is no reason why she should not pay some commonsense regard to health, or have some pleasure. And when a woman has cooked, and washed dishes, and sewed, day in and out for a year, for a family of five or six, she certainly needs a complete change of some kind. If it is possible for her husband to go with her, she will enjoy her little outing all the more. But she certainly should get away for a week at least, where there will be no household cares, and no children to make constant demands upon her time, temper and strength.

One mother of seven, who does all her own housework and sewing, goes regularly every year for a week to a seaside resort. She goes to a comfortable, though not expensive hotel and luxuriates in being waited on, in eating meals she has not had to give a thought to, in watching and entering into the gay life about her, so different from her own, the other fifty-one weeks of the year. Her husband considers it time and money well spent, and cheerfully gives up one week of his vacation to an oversight of the home while she is away. The machinery of that home runs more smoothly because of the mother's rest and change.

Another woman, the mother of two active boys, takes one week of her husband's vacation to go off to the mountains to rest and recuperate. He and the boys go to a little bungalow at the shore and have a jolly time keeping house, and incidentally gaining an insight into the burdens and trials of housekeeping. That makes them comprehend more sympathetically the problems the mother must wrestle with throughout the year.

If the children are small, or the means very much limited, it may not perhaps be possible to arrange a vacation for mother. But she needs it just the same. If anyone in the family needs a rest and a complete change it is the mother. The husband may work hard, but he does it in a big world of business, where he meets many people and many interests and activities. A woman is shut within the four walls of a home, with constant demands made upon her by restless children that are particularly trying to nerves. She needs to get away from this occasionally if she wishes to keep her health up to par.

Many a mother will not want to leave husband and children, being fearful that all sorts of dire things will happen in her absence. But she should look at it in a big, broad way that if the end they benefit by her better health and spirits as much as does she; and that, too, she is helping the children to become self-reliant by putting responsibilities upon them. The children's interest and co-operation in mother's vacation should be enlisted, the husband should realize that his wife works quite as hard, and probably much more monotonously than does he, and thus, with all pulling together, a vacation can be arranged for mother in almost every home, no matter how great the obstacles to be overcome may seem at first.

There was a disappointment on the part of certain enemies of Newark in Columbus and elsewhere that Colonel Roosevelt did not specifically denounce lynching in his five minutes' speech in this city on Saturday. The Colonel made very proper and impressive remarks in behalf of law and order and justice. Of course this meant the condemnation of all crime, including lynching, as everybody knows, but Newark was not swayed by a local specification as some people desired to have done. The Colonel's remarks were more in the nature of kind advice than fierce denunciation.

It was different with Columbus when Teddy put her in the line light, for that city came in for a number of deserving swipes in very specific terms. He told Columbus that law and order represent the first essential in the achievement of justice. Among his specifications this is the language he used to characterize those assassins of that city who have been using the weapon of dynamite: "The assassin that tries to kill a man or men with dynamite, and himself to escape all personal risk, occupies the most evil eminence on the table-land of infamy on which all assassins stand."

Under its incompetent city government Columbus has been the scene of dynamite outrages, causing indiscriminate loss of life and property, and mob violence and riot have prevailed there for weeks. Yet Newark has been the sufferer of all the sensations that Columbus newspapers and correspondents could magnify or invent.

GRAND MEETING OF DEM. COMMITTEE ON SATURDAY

The splendid attendance at the meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee on Saturday afternoon, and the spirit that prevailed, were indicative of the tremendous interest that is being felt by Democrats all over the county in the issues of the present campaign. There is a something in the very air that is significant of victory and Democrats all along the line are especially enthusiastic. The Democrats of old Licking were never in better shape than they are today, and their organization is perfect. With Mr. C. L. V. Holiz as chairman of the County Executive committee, and Mr. James J. Hill as chairman of the County Central Committee, the work of organization in the different townships will go forward with plan and method. Both committees are composed of excellent and time tried Democrats and nothing will be left undone that will tend to increasing the Democratic majority in Licking county this fall.

The Republican insurgency against the machine nomination of Dick for Senator is growing and spreading over the State with increased force every day. Only in counties where boss rule is absolutely dominant are Republican candidates for the Legislature being lined up for Dick.

TAFT'S TARIFF COMMISSION FARCE

President Taft is exercising his best ingenuity to mollify the Republican Insurgents in their opposition to the Payne-Aldrich tariff by promising that the Tariff Commission will remedy the defects by taking up the various schedules one at a time and recommending revision. The plan announced is that after making a thorough investigation of a schedule the Commission will report its recommendation to the President, who in turn will transmit the conclusion to Congress.

gress. Then if there is a majority of Regular Republican stand-patters in Congress which President Taft is trying to have elected, the aforesaid report of the Tariff Commission will be promptly pigeon-holed and that will be the last of it. The fraudulence of the scheme will become apparent and the people will have another lesson of the power of the Franks. It is not probable that the insurgents will be so easily fooled as Taft imagines. The only hope of repealing the iniquities of the Payne-Aldrich tariff is in a Democratic House co-operating with the Democrats and Insurgents of the Senate.

NEWARK AND COLUMBUS UNDER THE LIME LIGHT

BETTER EVERY DAY.

(Delaware Herald.)
Governor Harmon as an official grows in the estimation of the people every day. He proves himself a careful student of affairs and a thinker. His individuality is to be admired and at no moment are the people of Ohio not ready to sanction his official action. He is an extraordinary individual. A man of wide range of thought, and he does the right thing when the right time comes. Let's have Governor Harmon again. Ohio needs more of such men.

POLITICAL PROPHECY FULFILLED IN DETAIL

Read the following editorial, which is reprinted verbatim just as it appeared in the Marion Mirror of Jan. 18, 1899:

"Governor Harmon has let it be known that he is not going to stand idly by and watch the Republican bosses in Ohio run state affairs. He intends to take the bull by the horns and upset a few of their plans and among the very first will be establishing some order in the loaning of state money to the banks. But this is only the beginning. He is going to do some other things and among them is an inquiry into the way of doing business in Cincinnati and Hamilton county. Governor Harmon is just the kind of a governor Ohio has been looking for and when he gets through stirring things up and straightening them out, the people will recognize his value."

Although that editorial was written and published a year ago last January, when Governor Harmon's administration was only a days old, so completely has it been verified in every detail that it may be set down now as a prophecy fulfilled.

It is a credit and honor to the state of Ohio to have a governor who so completely measured up to the expectations of the people, and the reelection of Governor Harmon in November will signify that the people are not ungrateful to a faithful public servant.

"Suffered day and night the torment of itching piles. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Ointment. It cured me permanently."—Hon. John R. Garrett, Mayor, Girard, Ala.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR WEST NEWARK

Plant for Manufacture of Insulators and Specialties to be Erected Soon Near Rail Mill.

Within a few days work will be commenced on the plant of the Ohio Glass and Porcelain Company, which is one of Newark's newest industries. The plant, which will employ close to 300 men when under full operation, will be located in West Newark, a short distance east of the present location of the plant of the Ohio Rail Company. Four or five large and substantial buildings will be erected as soon as possible to house the machinery, etc. Approximately $150,000 will be invested and if all the present plans are carried out, this new industry will soon take its place among the most important manufacturing of the city.

J. E. Inman, a Californian, who is the patentee of a new insulating device, is promoting the new company, and the Newark Board of Trade has already agreed to donate three acres of land for the factory site. The company is yet to be organized, but this detail of the proposed factory will be settled within a short time and the new company will be incorporated under the laws of Ohio.

The factory will make glass and porcelain insulators, cleat tubes and other devices used in electrical construction. Mr. Inman's patent insulator has been examined and tested by many of the leading electrical experts of the country and pronounced not only a practical invention, but a very valuable one as well.

The five buildings proposed under the present plans will consist of a glass plant 80 by 120 feet; a porcelain plant about 50 by 100 feet; a Sherrodizing plant about 25 by 75 feet; a machine shop about 20 by 40 feet; and an assembling, packing and shipping room about 50 by 100 feet.

All the buildings will be of steel construction of the most substantial nature.

Mr. Inman is now in the city and is anxious to meet a number of glass men with a view to giving them employment. A card addressed to Mr. Inman, at Newark, will reach him and he will give personal attention to all inquiries.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM HARRINGTON STYLES.
William Harrington Styles, aged 83 years, a resident of this city, was found dead in bed at the Arlington hotel, in Zanesville, Sunday morning by Henry Smith of that hotel, whom Mr. Styles went to visit. Death was due to heart trouble. Mr. Styles went to Zanesville Friday to visit his friend.

"I am suffering with heart trouble and am likely to die at any time. Please knock on my door every morning if I do not answer come in. You will find me dead."

Mr. Styles gave the above message to his friend on his arrival and on Sunday morning when Mr. Smith knocked on his friend's door and there was no answer he entered the room. His friend lay stretched upon the bed asleep—that sleep from which there is no awakening.

To his life-long friend the dead man had indicated a letter, which was found nearby. Literally it was a will and it contained instructions as to what should be done with his personal property.

The remains were taken to an undertaker's and prepared for burial, and today the body was shipped to Cincinnati for cremation. Short services were held in the undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon by the Masons of Zanesville, Mr. Styles having been a member of that order. After the cremation the ashes will be shipped back to Zanesville, where they will be buried beside his first wife.

Most of the life of William Harrington Styles was spent in Zanesville where he worked as a machinist. Then he moved to Newark and resided here at 26 Columbia street with his wife. A brother, Volney Styles of Potwin, Kansas, also survives.

FUNERAL OF MISS SEVERANCE.

The body of Miss Edna E. Severance, who died at her home in Shawnee Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, was brought here Monday and taken to the home of G. W. Hall, 458 East Main street by Undertaker Geo. Bowers. Short services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Trout, and the interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

FORMER NEWARK MAN IS KILLED NEAR TOLEDO

Toledo, Sept. 12.—A Hocking Valley passenger train from Columbus derailed here at noon was wrecked near here while running at 45 miles per hour. The engineer of the train, George Mithurne, J. G. Devilliss, superintendent of motive power and C. Engler, road freeman of engines, were killed.

They are all Columbus men. No passengers were killed but some were badly shaken up. The train was derailed in some manner at present unknown.

Mr. Devilliss was a former resident of this city and was master mechanic of the B and O railway. He resided on Hudson avenue for a short time after his marriage to a Columbus lady, leaving here to accept a position in Columbus.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT...

Sermon by CHARLES E. RUSSELL, Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

"WHICH IS THE TRUE GOSPEL?"

"I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ" (Romans i. 16).

Portland, Me., Sept. 11.—The International Bible Students Convention is in session here with an excellent attendance and deep interest manifested. Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle delivered two addresses today, one being in Jefferson Theatre. We report one of them from the text foregoing:

Three weeks ago today Christendom was startled by a communication which announced that the Christian Alliance had lifted a collection of $30,000 in a few minutes—$300 in cash, the balance in promises. Then followed the startling announcement of Brother Simpson, its President, that the collection lifted would probably be the last at Old Orchard, because the Camp Grounds' Directors had rented its Auditorium for three days for the use of our Association. He declared that he disagreed with our theology. This, of course, was a veiled threat that the Directors of the camp ground must break their contract with the Bible Students. This they promptly did, and we accepted back the money paid in advance, rather than go to law. It is for this reason, dear friends, that we are having our Convention "outside the camp." We are glad that its fence does not separate us from our great Redeemer and Teacher, the joy of whose blessing I see in your faces.

Secular editors were astonished! They had been congratulating Christian people that the days of the rack, the thumb screw and the stake were past and that from every quarter were coming appeals for Christian Union which, it was hoped, might even ultimately include all denominations of Catholics and Protestants. Yet here they had to listen to the contrary—a suggestion that Christian people in alliance were so opposed to Bible Students that even a year would not be sufficient to purify the air of Old Orchard and to permit them to meet here next year to take up another collection. It seemed funny, too, to these editors, that anything could drive a Christian Alliance meeting away from a $60,000 collection!

Explanations Surely in Order.
Since Brother Simpson may not care to tell the whole truth about the matter and since the Christian public is interested and ought to know the facts, I must tell them. The unpleasant duty, however, will not necessitate my saying an unkind word concerning Mr. Simpson and the Christian friends who are in alliance with him.

There are two reasons why Brother Simpson thought it doubtful if he could come next year following our three days of this year. (1) He knew instinctively that his collections would be smaller, hardly worth coming for. If the people should begin to get the eyes of their understanding more widely opened respecting what really constitutes the Gospel of Christ.

(2) The $60,000 "raised" was not cash and a large proportion of it never will be. Some of it is promised over and over again and telegraphed over and over, as was the case with the young woman who in the spectacular manner offered her jewels from time to time and had it mentioned in the papers. Such repetitions of charitable work are considered entirely proper by many in connection with religious work in various denominations. "For the good of the cause." Subscriptions are given publicly without hope of payment, to influence others who are more sincere—some of whom in the excitement give more than they can afford.

Chicago Stockyard Method.
This same method is illustrated in the Chicago Stock Yards. A fine, large, trained bull gallops out to meet the cattle designed for slaughter. He waits before them and becomes their leader. Following him in a grand rush for a narrow passage they crowd one another to the executioner, who knocks them senseless. A special place just large enough for himself is provided for the docile bull, who, later, goes out to lead on another herd for the slaughter.

We do not mean to say that those who give their money are slaughtered or otherwise injured. We believe that they are blessed—that everyone is blessed who sacrifices anything heartily unto the Lord, or to what they suppose to be his service, whether it is or not. It is the method of getting the money from the people and the deception practised which we deplore. However, the Alliance has plenty of company in this method in larger Christian denominations. It is part of the "business" method of recent years. Some who did not understand this "business" method wondered where all the money apparently contributed to the "Christian Alliance" work was spent. An investigation of its financial accounts was made, which revealed the fact that they were chaotic, and other "business" methods were advised.

"The Darkness Hateth the Light."
Some one may inquire why the Christian Alliance should fear us and whether or not we have ever done them harm. We reply, Never have we injured them in the slightest degree, nor ever even publicly mentioned their name before. Their opposition to us is on the lines of general principles mentioned by the Great Teacher, "The darkness hateth the light." "All things that are reproved are made manifest by the light" (Ephesians v. 13). Our work is to proclaim the true Gospel—to incite Christian people to Bible study in the light of the Bible's own testimony and without sectarian spectacles, which, in the past, have so distorted the Word of God and set it forth in false colors.

As Christian people come to see the grossness of the errors by which they have been blinded, the light not only has a blessed and transforming effect upon their minds, but it influences their pocketbooks also. They no longer appreciate the "business" methods of the Alliance nor the brand of Gospel which it sets forth. The more God's people come to a correct understanding of the teachings of his Word, the smaller will be the collections of the Christian Alliance. That is the real secret of their opposition. I would that it were true that they would never take up another collection at Old Orchard! The heathen have already had too much of their Gospel of damnation. God's name has already been slandered and blasphemed enough by the false Gospel message—that nine hundred and ninety-nine out of every thousand of humanity ever born are to suffer eternal torment because of father Adam's sin and the ignorance, stupidity and meanness which have resulted.

of millions of mankind that we and our fathers for centuries supposed were in Purgatory roasting, stewing, tortured, but hoping for heaven. They looked at one another in consternation. They had hearts and sympathies and felt that as it had devolved upon them to smash Purgatory, it must also devolve upon them to re-locate all those thousands of millions whom they had on their hands. They felt the weight of the responsibility. Could they demand of God that they should be put into heaven? Surely not! Surely only the saintly few are fit for heaven! They, as well as all, recognized that fact. Then, with blank consternation, they determined that they must crowd the entire mass into a hell of eternal torture and shut the gates upon them forever and write upon the gates, "Who enters here abandons hope."

Brother Calvin to the Rescue.
Taking from practically all humanity all future hope made the Reformers for the time heartless. It would be awful to do that for one person, but to thus "do" all humanity seemed terrible. And then to be obliged to label that gospel "Good Tidings" must certainly have been a trying experience for the Reformers.

But Brother John Calvin helped them amazingly and took from them their burden. He told them that they should not worry, because it was all God's fault and not theirs. God had predestinated them to that awful future long before he created man. Now they should merely try to think of themselves as the "elect" and try to forget everybody else. Of course, it seemed horrible to charge all these things against the God of all Justice, Wisdom, Love and Power. But it was the only solution which occurred to them. John Calvin's theories were afterwards embodied in the "Westminster Confession of Faith." And that confession of faith became the foundation of nearly all Protestant creeds. Brother John Wesley afterward objected, but admitted that only the saintly went to heaven and everybody else went to eternal torment. His protest was that, instead of this being by Divine foreordination and intention, it was, on the contrary, because of Divine unwisdom and incompetency.

"Good Tidings of Great Joy."
Surely no sane person can any longer defend any of the above "Gospels" as the true one, of which St. Paul never was ashamed! Surely St. Paul never preached any of those Gospels, nor did any of the Apostles—nor does the Bible support such theories, except by the turning and twisting of language, misinterpretations of the original and misinterpretations of some parables. The plain statements of the Scriptures are all directly to the opposite.

The Bible teaches that "the wages of sin is death," not Purgatory nor eternal torment. "The soul that sinneth, it shall die." Adam, the perfect, was placed on trial for life eternal or death eternal. He sinned and the sentence against him was, "Cursed is the earth for thy sake; thorns and thistles shall it bring forth unto thee. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread until thou return unto the ground from whence thou wast taken" (Genesis iii, 17-19). St. Paul declares the same: "By one man's disobedience sin entered into the world; and thus death passed upon all men, because all are sinners" (Romans v, 12).

Looking about us we find this true. Everybody who is not dead is dying. As the Bible says, we are living under a reign of Sin and Death. Nothing that man can do can either eradicate sin or lift us out of our dead and dying condition. God alone can help us! He proposes to help us and the message respecting that help is in the Scriptures, called the Gospel. Its announcement by the angels on the night of Jesus' birth is full, complete, satisfactory, viz: "Behold, we bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people: for unto you is born this day in the City of David a Savior (life-giver) which is Christ the Lord" (Luke ii, 10).

Ah, now we have the Truth! The penalty of sin is death. And the "good tidings" is that God has provided for our recovery from sin and death. The Savior gave his life for the cancellation of our sin, for the satisfaction of Justice, that in due time Adam and all his condemned and imperfect race might be released from the condemnation and be lifted out of the sin and death conditions which now prevail. That uplifting is Scripturally called the resurrection of the dead. Hence the preaching of the early Church was, "Jesus and the Resurrection"—the Redeemer and his work.

Still More Good Tidings.
The good tidings for the race in general is that the Redeemer in God's due time will become King of kings and Lord of lords—the Messiah of glory, God's glorious Representative. For a thousand years the regenerating work for Adam's race will progress (Matthew xix, 28; Acts iii, 19-20). God's Chosen People, Israel, will be the earthly agents of the heavenly and invisible King of glory. By the close of his reign the whole earth will have been transformed into the Paradise of God. "He will make the place of his feet glorious." And mankind will all be perfect again, in God's image. There will be no more sin, no more sickness, no more dying, because all the things of sin and death will have passed away and he who sits upon the Throne will have renewed all things (Revelation xxi, 5). All who, after coming to a full knowledge of the Truth of God's love and gracious provision, still love sin and hate righteousness, will be destroyed in the Second Death, from which there will be no redemption, no resurrection, no recovery, as St. Peter says, "They shall perish like brute beasts."

CATARRH A SYSTEMIC BLOOD DISEASE

Catarrh is not merely an affection of the mucous membranes; it is a deep-seated blood disease in which the entire circulation and greater part of the system are involved. It is more commonly manifested in the head, nose and throat, because of the sensitive nature of these membranes, and also because they are more easily reached by irritating influences from the outside. The symptoms of Catarrh, such as a tight feeling in the head, nose stopped up, throat clogged and dry, hacking cough, etc., show that the tiny blood vessels of the mucous membranes are badly congested and inflamed from the impurities in the circulation. To cure Catarrh permanently the blood must be purified and the system cleansed of all unhealthy matter. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head, goes down to the bottom of the trouble and makes a complete and lasting cure by PURIFYING the blood. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, the head is cleared, breathing becomes natural and easy, the throat is no longer clogged, and every unpleasant symptom of the disease disappears. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and for this reason is the most certain cure for Catarrh. Book on Catarrh and medical advice free to all who write.

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

THREATEN TO SHUT OFF THE GAS SUPPLY

Kenton, Sept. 12.—The demand of the Ohio Fuel Supply company, which supplies the Kenton Gas company, with gas, that the local company raise the price of gas from 30 to 33 cents per thousand feet, and charge $2 annual meter rental, has called a storm of bitter protests here.

Prominent citizens are outspoken in charging that it is a simple hold-up game, and counsel is hesitating to pass the ordinance, but states they have been notified that unless the ordinance passes the gas will be shut off. The fact that the Standard Oil company has practical control of the Ohio Fuel Supply company has led councilmen to charge that the local company is in a hold-up game. The Kenton company, in defense, says that the Ohio Fuel Supply company is forcing it to either sell to them or accept their dictation.

BONESETTER A BUSY MAN

Series of Accidents Resulting in Fracture of Legs and Arms of the Victims.

J. W. Applegate, 150 Board street, had his left arm broken on a pedestrian crossing this morning. Mr. Applegate was carrying a horse when the animal leaped against him and crushed him to the side of the stall. His left arm was broken and a surgeon was called to attend him.

Walter, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler, 563 Granville street, had both bones of his right leg below the knee broken last night by being knocked down by an unknown bicyclist. Walter was walking along the sidewalk near his home shortly after dark, when a man riding a wheel on the sidewalk, struck him and threw him to the pavement. He was carried to his home and a surgeon was called to reduce the fractures. The identity of the man on the wheel was not learned.

While painting at a house on Mill street this morning, Dr. J. Billman fell from a ladder and his left arm was broken. He was taken to his home and a surgeon was called to attend him.

REV. L. C. SPARKS CLOSES EIGHTH YEAR OF WORK

Sunday was the closing Sabbath year for the M. E. churches of the city. At the first M. E. church, Rev. L. C. Sparks, who closed the eighth year of a very successful pastorate, occupied the morning hour with a resume of the eight years' work.

During the eight years' period just closing over 1,000 persons have been received into the church, and notwithstanding that about 100 transferred their membership to Elizabeth Chapel in the West End the membership is now the largest in the Ohio Conference, and there are but two Methodist churches in Ohio having a larger membership.

For all purposes during the past year over $21,000 was raised, which includes the payments made on the new church enterprise. The official board has united in asking for the return of Rev. Mr. Sparks for another year during which it is expected that the new church edifice will be completed. To the large vision and great energy of Rev. Mr. Sparks is largely due the credit for the carrying out of the enterprise.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

Wilbur Wright taught three government officials how to fly. Within three months Lieutenant Foulis had been sent to a remote Texas post for routine duty, Lieutenant Lahm had been sent to Fort Riley to think of many things besides flying, and Lieutenant Humphreys, within a year had resigned his commission, because he saw no hope of getting aloft while a soldier and was so badly bitten by the aerobug that he could not rest aground. The aeroplane which the government bought was sent to San Antonio. About the only contribution the army's aviation school made toward furthering the conquest of the air was that its teacher discovered while instructing in it at College Park that he could overcome a certain undulating motion in his biplane by moving one of the front elevating planes to the rear. Within a year, almost on the day that Lieutenant Humphreys resigned his commission, the Wright brothers showed in public their first aerial touring car, planned to ride as steady as a Pullman and built to accomplish the feat with both front elevating planes cut off and all the work of up-and-down manipulation put upon the one plane in the rear. By inspiring Lieutenant Humphreys to resign Wilbur Wright won him from the army as a permanent aide in the field of progressive experimentation. It will be some time before the American people take much interest in a doctrinaire world in which all departments of human life and progress are entrusted to a bureaucracy.—Editorial in Collier's for Sept. 10.

LEAPED FROM BRIDGE TO SAVE HIS LIFE

Steve Roman, a foreigner, in the West addition, had a narrow escape from death Monday while walking the railroad tracks near the Howell provision plant. He was crossing the track bridge when he heard a train approaching and seeing that it was fast upon him, he jumped to the side of the bridge and jumped. He fell about 15 feet to the bed of the creek and alighting on his feet he stumbled and fell, breaking his right arm.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

The Silver Feather

WELL, children," asked daddy, "what shall it be this evening, an animal story or a tale about some great man or a fairy story?"

Evelyn was the first to answer. "A fairy story," said she, so daddy told the story of "The Silver Feather."

"A long, long time ago," he began, "there lived a princess who was very beautiful and very good. All the people in her father's kingdom loved her very dearly. Many princes came and wanted to marry her, but she would have none of them. The reason for this was because on her sixteenth birthday her fairy godmother had presented to her a beautiful line feather made of silver and had told her that she must marry no prince unless he could show her another feather as beautiful and fine as her own. This was a secret between the fairy godmother and the princess, and no one else knew about it. But, of course, none of the princes had a silver feather, and the princess would marry none of them. The fairy godmother said the feathers were magic feathers and would always bring the very best of good luck to the persons who had them.

"Well, one day a prince really appeared who had the feather. He was very handsome, and the princess loved him, but to be sure that he was a brave man she sent him away to kill a dragon which lived near the king's palace and which killed people. The prince went, and for a year nothing was heard of him. Then the princess became very sorry that she had sent him away.

"Other princes came to woo her, but when she remembered the handsome young man with the silver feather she would not listen to them.

"One day she was in her garden weeping when her fairy godmother appeared before her. 'The prince is kept a prisoner in a cave by the dragon,' she said, 'and you must go to rescue him. No one else can do so. But you must go quickly.'

"But how can I do it?" asked the princess. 'I am only a weak girl.'

"You must ride up boldly to the entrance to the dragon's cave where he lies and touch him on the head with the fairy feather," said the godmother. 'Then he will run away, and you can fetch out the prince.'

"Well, the princess made up her mind to be brave. She rode up boldly to the door of the dragon's cave and touched him on the head with the feather. Then the wicked old monster turned pale and ran away and was never seen again, and the princess went into the cave and brought out the prince. And they were married and lived happily ever after."

EDW. THOMAS DIED SUDDENLY SUNDAY MORNING

Community Shocked When News of His Death Received From Leopold, N. J.

Never was this community more shocked than it was on Sunday when word was received here of the death of Mr. Edward Thomas, son of Mr. James E. Thomas, the veteran foundryman of this city, which occurred at Leopold, N. J., about five miles from Atlantic City, on Sunday morning about 3 o'clock.

Several weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left for a point about five miles out from Atlantic City. At that time Mr. Thomas was apparently in the enjoyment of the best of health.

About the middle of last week, however, he was taken sick, with an attack of acute indigestion, for which he underwent an operation, and had only been sick two or three days when he passed away. Mr. Thomas' wife and Mr. Henry Norris and several other intimate friends from Newark were at his bedside at the time of his death and accompanied the remains to Newark. The body arrived here on the Panhandle 1:15 p. m. train Monday, and was taken to his home, 116 North Fifth street, from which place the funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Rev. L. P. Frazier, pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, conducting the services, and the interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mr. J. Edward Thomas was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Thomas, of this city. He was born in New York on November 21, 1872, and would have been fifty-eight years old on the 21st of next November. He had lived when three and a half years old he came with his parents to Newark, and had lived here all his life with the exception of several years he lived in Pittsburg when quite young. He attended the Newark public schools and graduated from the Newark High School. He also attended school in Pittsburg for a time. After his graduation he went into the office with his father at the foundry, and soon showed unusual business qualifications, and finally became book-keeper and secretary and treasurer of the establishment. He was acknowledged to be one of the shrewdest business men in the city. For several years he traveled extensively through the United States in the interest of the King, Gilber and Warner Steel Works of Chicago, and during all the years of his business career he has made a reputation for honesty and integrity that any man might be proud of.

On September 23, 1887, he was married to Miss Jessie Clark, daughter of Dr. Eugene Clark of Mt. Vernon.

The deceased was a prominent Mason, being a member of Newark Lodge, No. 37, F. & A. M. Warren Chapter, No. 7, R. A. M., Bleslow Council, No. 7, R. & S. M., and St. Luke's Commandery, No. 74, Knights Templar. He was also a thirty-second degree Mason and a member of the Shriner's. For a number of years he has been vestryman in the Trinity Episcopal church of this city. He was also a director of the Franklin National Bank and the Newark Trust company, besides belonging to other organizations that were for the good of Newark.

Besides his wife he is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters.

All the local banks will close at 1:30 on the afternoon of the funeral tomorrow.

CHARLES SUMNER COLVILLE.
Charles Sumner Colville, a well known molder of this city, a son of the late J. W. Colville, a former well known resident of Newark, who has been making his home with his widowed mother, Mrs. Sarah Colville, and his sister, Miss Grace Colville, died at the home, 51 Summit street, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after a illness of some time with uraemic poisoning. The deceased was aged about 54 years and was a man who was held in high esteem by all who knew him. Besides his mother and sister, he is survived by one brother, Carey Colville, a well known printer. The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, conducted by Rev. F. E. Hill. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

MRS. LUCY MSHERRY.
While sitting in a chair fanning herself Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock, death came to Mrs. Lucy Msherry, without a moment's warning. She was talking with Mrs. Kari-cose, a neighbor, and giving a gasp, expired. Dr. D. M. Smith was called and gave it as his opinion that death was due to heart failure. Mrs. Msherry had suffered a few attacks with her heart recently, but they never were of a serious nature.

The deceased was a widow and had been a resident of Newark for the past 30 years, having been born in Hartford, Conn. in 1815. She came here from Belleville, Richland county. She was the mother of three daughters, Mrs. R. G. Rutter of Warsaw, Ind., Mrs. Ashley Perry of New Orleans, La., and Mrs. Millie Shaffer of this city. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Shaffer, 21 Stanberry street. Burial in Cedar Hill cemetery.

ELIZABETH A. P. ANDERSON.
Elizabeth A. P. Anderson, daughter of Allen H. and Mary Ingraham, was born near Union Station, Licking county, March 24, 1826. When a small child she, with her parents, moved to McKean township, where she has since resided. On April 3, 1849, she was married to James B. Elias. To them were born three children. In 1857 she was called upon to pass through the unusual affliction of being bereft of husband and two children, only one son, Geo.

W., being left. In 1860 she was married to Jacob Anderson, to whose children she became a devoted mother. On Feb. 20, 1878, he was killed and she was again bereft of the love and protection of a husband. After the death of Mr. Anderson, she made her home with her son, George W. Elias, who survives her. She died Sept. 4, 1910, aged 84 years, 5 months and 15 days. Besides the son George, she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Noah Andregg of this city, and Mrs. Abram Wright of Atlanta, Ga., and one stepdaughter, Mrs. J. B. Davies, together with an unusually large circle of friends, who mourn the loss of a devoted mother, a loyal sister and a true friend.

This closes a long and useful life of one who was ever ready to do what she could to comfort and relieve those in affliction and trouble. No task was too hard nor burden too heavy for her to undertake. If she could only relieve those in need of help, and we believe she did it for love of him who said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it unto me."

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

GRAND FALL OPENING

And Fourth Great Birthday Celebration

Of Newark's Largest, Greatest and Most Complete Home Outfitting Store

Wednesday Afternoon and Evening, September 14, 1910

JUST FOUR YEARS AGO we first opened our doors to the buying public of Newark and vicinity and sent broadcast our Most Cordial Invitation to come, visit and inspect our stocks and learn our prices and business methods.

It is needless to say that they responded in numbers far greater than our fondest expectations, and from that first opening day Four Short Years Ago, our business increased constantly day by day and we soon found ourselves too badly crowded and without sufficient room in which to properly handle the vast amount of business intrusted to us.

About a year and a half ago we secured a lease and removed to The Big Union Block, on Church street, and also opening in The Arcade. Since our removal to our present location, giving us the space in which to greatly increase our stocks and to add many entirely new and complete departments our business has simply grown by leaps and bounds. Every day, every week, every month has been far in excess of the previous one.

This fast increasing business has demanded more modern store facilities, more help, larger and better assortments—in fact during the last 60 days many entirely new and complete departments have been installed, old departments have been enlarged, additional stock rooms have been secured, so that today we present to you for your inspection and approval Positively the Largest, Most Complete, Most Modern and Best Equipped Home Outfitting Store in Central Ohio, Barring None. We feel justly proud of the record we have made in the Four Short Years, and we want to thank you most sincerely for your most liberal patronage and earnest co-operation, for without it we could never have built up this wonderful mercantile institution you see today.

We want to show our appreciation. We want every resident of Newark and Central Ohio to be our guests next Wednesday afternoon and evening, upon the occasion of our among the Chinamen, clad in native costume. They were greeted with shouts of acclaim.

After this gathering of the nations followed Dominicans and Carmelites, Jesuits and Benedictines, Redemptorists and Sulpicians, Passionists, Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament, Dominicans, members of the Holy Cross and the Holy Ghost, and a group of 120 Trappist monks. Behind the orders strode 100 parish priests and missionaries in white surplices, and behind them another 100, vested as if for mass.

Then came the prelates. They walked in single file, 70 bishops in robe and mitre and 50 archbishops, their chaplains at their sides in black cassocks, each holding a corner of a voluminous cope.

As they drew near the multitude grew suddenly hushed, for they knew that the sacrament was not far behind. A moment later the ponderous bell on the east tower of Notre Dame, known for its voice as the great Bourdon, began to thunder out its message that the papal legate was leaving the cathedral leaving the monstrance.

Companies of the Sixty-fifth regiment marched to the front and to the rear of a huge canopy, which moved slowly on rollers. Holding the monstrance in both hands, which were hidden in a hermetic veil, walked Cardinal Vannutelli under a canopy. His head was bowed and as the host passed, the people fell on their knees.

Behind him, in scarlet robes, walked Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal Locu, archbishop of Ireland. Both attended by bishops, the archbishop of Montreal, the monsignors, the papal chamberlains and lay members of the Catholic Church who held pontifical decorations. Conspicuous among them were Governor Peck of Rhode Island and his staff, as well as a numerous train of Canadian dignitaries and officials.

It was not till the monstrance procession to unfold its length that it was dusk when the legate reached Fletchers field, at the foot of Mount Royal. As he approached the repository myriads of lights suddenly broke out upon the face of the mountain and over the repository itself a great cross, visible for miles around, flashed into brilliance. It had been requested that no attempt should be made by the procession to kneel when the benediction of the eucharist was to be given, but with one motion the hundreds of kneeling fell to their knees before the host, standing on the mountain sanctuary, held aloft the golden monstrance.

At the termination of the blessing the multitude sang the Te Deum, and the twenty-first international eucharistic congress was terminated.

Last night 200,000 people slept under the skies. The run out of the city started at 7 o'clock and by 9 the railroad stations were jammed. The companies had not foreseen such a crush and they had not cars enough.

The hotels were already packed to the roofs and although drawing rooms, reception rooms and concert halls were turned into dormitories and lodging houses, and private houses alike thrown open for the night, a vast overflow remains. Visitors from American cities will be given preference today in obtaining train reservations. The police have orders to make it as comfortable as possible for those who must sleep out tonight.

Cardinal Vannutelli will leave Canada next Wednesday night. Cardinal Locu expects to sail from Quebec the latter part of the week.

Rev. Father B. M. O'Boylan, pastor of St. Francis de Sales church has been in attendance at the great international Eucharistic congress in Montreal since it convened. He was one of the many thousands of priests in line in the great procession.

During his stay Father O'Boylan has kindly remembered the Advocate with copies of Montreal newspapers giving detailed accounts of the congress.

Father O'Boylan will probably return during the week.

NO FATALITIES REPORTED.
Montreal, Sept. 12.—Reports from the hospitals today say that none of the many people injured during yesterday's demonstration will die. In view of the congestion and heat it is considered wonderful that there were no fatalities.

It's An Easy Matter With Rheuma, the New Remedy That Evans' Drug Store Guarantees.

Drive out the Uric Acid from the joints. Get every particle of this poisonous matter out of your system and keep it out.

GRANVILLE

Granville, Sept. 12.—Anton Baroni, a workman employed on the pipe line being constructed from Homer to Union Station, has been suffering from blood poison in his right hand for some days and has been unable to work. He thinks it was caused from the bite of a spider. His hand has been badly swollen and judging from present indications, it will be some days before he will be able to resume work.

Henry Stephenson and family of Elyria, O., spent Sunday in the village.

The recent fine rains have helped the pastures, but it came too late to do the corn any good, unless planned later, and then the frost may catch it. Early corn has matured.

Grasshoppers are reported as being very numerous in this vicinity, eating up everything that is grown. The pests are also said to be devouring the fruit in places.

Mr. and Mrs. John Neldon and son Harold of New Castle, Coshooten county have been visiting the family of Mr. L. P. Neldon.

George Raut of Bucyrus was a Granville visitor the latter part of the week.

George Piper, who has been conducting a very successful meat business in Cambridge for some time, spent Sunday in Granville. George says that Cambridge is one of the most hustling business towns of its size in Ohio.

Miss Stella Burger of Lima, spent Saturday in town the guest of Miss Minnie Lemert.

An adjourned meeting of the council will be held Tuesday night to take action on the ordinance increasing the price of natural gas in Granville. The general impression here is that the price of gas should be lowered instead of increased.

Prof. W. H. Johnson has returned from Columbus, where he met with the committee appointed by Governor Harmon to consider the claims of various cities to the two State Normal schools to be erected. What action was taken by the committee has not yet been announced.

A REMARKABLE CURE AT CAREY

Two sisters of the order of St. Joseph of Erie, Pa. have been praying at the shrine of Our Lady of Consolation this week to secure help for the one who has been ill with a cancer, for a number of years past. The trouble had affected her right arm so that she had no use of it and was compelled to have an attendant. After the second day she was able to raise her arm and has been using it ever since. To say that she is filled with joy is unnecessary.—Carey Times.

SICK HEADACHES

Are Caused by Constipation and a Lazy Liver.

As long as your liver is out of order you will have constipation, sick headaches, and probably nausea, biliousness, coated tongue and foul breath.

Nowadays it is an easy matter to put the liver in fine working condition. One or two DR. HASKELL'S LIVER PILLS, that new, gentle, safe and most reliable laxative will do it. Never anything discovered that gives such quick and joyful relief to constipation sufferers as we and our druggists.

COLUMBUS AGHAST

explosives are not used in the mines in Ohio. Their deductions are that more dynamites have arrived in the city and propose to do business.

Not since Sheriff Sartain attempted to capture Alfred Strader, supposed to know something about the past dynamiting, have any cars been wrecked until last night.

It is their opinion that sympathizers of the strikers, knowing that the traffic on the street cars is becoming heavier each day, decided to begin anew the dynamiting of cars, "to throw a scare" into the passengers. The placing of a miner's pick in the valise they think was for the purpose of throwing the police off of any possible clue. Had the explosives been under the stand and touched off at the time Roosevelt was speaking aside from "the man of the hour," who was the attraction, many prominent citizens would have been either killed or injured. Among them are Judge John E. Sater, United States district court; Dr. Washington Gladden and Mayor George S. Marshall, who were close to the speaker during his time of address on the stand.

Some of the more frivolous believe that the valise was put where it could be found Sunday in order to create a sensation when it was found. If this is true, the sensation has certainly been created.

The police department has no clue whatever to who might have been in possession of the explosives, and the park police are positive that no one was about the stand late last night, although plenty were in that vicinity during the early evening.

Col. Haddy Knox of the Seventh regiment, having learned the geographical details of the city, returned to his home at Marietta today. His regiment of infantry is being held in readiness to move to the city on a moment's notice should lawlessness again reign. He will be kept in touch with the situation while at Marietta.

RALPH JAUQUES

eyes, and Jaques' jealousy can easily be accounted for on account of the attractiveness of the young lady, who readily answered all questions.

She stated that she had been keeping company with Ralph Jaques since last May and during that time had always gotten along nicely until a few weeks ago, when his jealousy began cropping out. This occurred at Buckeye Lake, when Miss Keller danced with a number of different young men.

"When he took me home that night," said Miss Keller, "he requested me to discontinue dancing any time we were at the park in the future and also informed me that he did not wish me to have anything to do with any other young man."

"I told him that he had no right to make such a request, as we were not engaged and I did not consider him in the light of a lover, but from that time on we had frequent quarrels, but only along this line."

"This morning he came past the house on his way to work and stopped and talked to me a few minutes. He appeared very jolly and was not a bit melancholy."

"Shortly after dinner he came down to the house and brought some new music with him. He called me and wanted the music played on the piano. I was busy with the dinner dishes and told him I hadn't time. He then requested Mrs. Hagan to play for him and she did so, and he stood near the piano, laughing and talking. He again called and asked if I was not coming in. I cut him off short and told him I was not. He left shortly after and went up town."

"About 3 o'clock he called me up over the phone and wanted to know if I was going to Newark with him that evening. I replied that I had not made up my mind what I would do and he said I had better go. He talked rather sharp and cutting, and so I hung up the receiver on him."

"Some 20 minutes afterward, as again appeared at house and called for me. Mrs. Hagan told him I was taking a bath and he did not come in. In a few minutes I heard a shot and they called to me that Ralph had shot himself while standing on the doorstep of our house."

"Ralph and I were not engaged, and he had never proposed marriage. We were very good friends and he always treated me nicely. After he had requested me to keep away from the company of other young men, I began showing a coolness toward him and on several occasions informed him that we had better quit. "When he called up over the telephone this afternoon he told me I had better accompany him to Newark or that I would be sorry. We had planned to go to the park Sunday night and he had never appeared despondent. In fact he cut up and laughed this afternoon and seemed to be in a very cheerful mood. I do not think he had any intention at the time of taking his life."

"I have since learned that before calling here Saturday afternoon he called at a Granville grocery store and made the remark that he was going up to Hagan's and would 'fix Maud and myself.'"

"When I heard the shot I was not frightened, as I thought he had simply shot to scare me. We were together Thursday night and parted good friends. I am wearing a ring that belonged to him. I am sorry that Ralph took his life and think that he must have been temporarily deranged, as I am sure that he would never have done so had he been in his right mind."

After the young man shot himself, Dr. A. K. Follett, John Minesinger and E. D. King helped care for the body, taking it to the home of the young man's mother.

For some time past young Jaques had been in the employ of Frank Robinson as a teamster. He was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes. He was born in South Charleston, Ohio, July 29, 1892, and his father and a younger brother are buried there.

Besides his widowed mother, he is survived by one brother, Walter, and a married sister, who lives near Urbana.

The funeral services were held at the home of the mother, on Linden avenue, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, after which the body was taken to Newark by Undertaker J. M. Jones and shipped to South Charleston for interment.

The deepest sympathy of the entire community goes out to the mother in her great bereavement.

ONE KILLED AND ONE FATALLY SHOT BY HOLDUP MEN

Cleveland, Sept. 12.—Charles Dins was shot and killed last night and his companion, Carl Hegye, was shot and mortally wounded by four negroes who held them up and robbed them of $200 and their watches. The men were Hungarian construction laborers and were returning to camp when stopped by the negroes. They showed fight and the thugs opened fire. Hegye was found near his friend's dead body hours after and was rushed to a hospital, where he regained consciousness long enough to tell what had happened to them.
